Reported speech

a) ‘You should phone Mary’, Peter said. .............................................................................................
b) ‘I must go home immediately’, he said. ............................................................................................
c) ‘I can see you next week’, she said. ..................................................................................................
d) ‘We may come with you tonight’, they said. ....................................................................................
e) ‘I don’t usually wear perfume’. The woman said ............................................................................
f) ‘I have been driving for hours and I’m tired. Rachel said ...............................................................
Reported speech

a) ‘Are you staying here all this summer?’ the girl asked me.
   The girl ............................................................................................................................................

b) ‘What does “procrastinate” mean?’ I asked my teacher.
   I asked ............................................................................................................................................

c) ‘Have you done your homework or not?’ my teacher asked me.
   My teacher ........................................................................................................................................

d) ‘When is your birthday?’ I asked Sue.
   I ........................................................................................................................................................

e) ‘Did you remember to lock the door?’ my father asked me.
   My father ........................................................................................................................................

f) ‘Why have you turned off the television?’ Ellen asked me.
   Ellen ...................................................................................................................................................

Reported speech: use the verbs in the box

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>advise</th>
<th>ask</th>
<th>encourage</th>
<th>invite</th>
<th>order</th>
<th>remind</th>
<th>warn</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

a) ‘Stand up!’ the officer said to the soldier.
...........................................................................................................................................................

b) ‘Forget about that woman,’ Paul’s parents said.
..........................................................................................................................................................

c) ‘Don’t forget to turn off the lights,’ Ken told Joe.
..........................................................................................................................................................

d) ‘Go on, ask Harriet out,’ Alex’s friend said.
..........................................................................................................................................................

e) ‘Come to the party,’ Mr Rea said to me.
..........................................................................................................................................................

f) ‘Would you draw the curtains, please?’ the patient said to the nurse.
............................................................................................................................................................

g) ‘I wouldn’t annoy the boss if I were you. He’s very irritable today,’ Ben’s colleague told him.
............................................................................................................................................................

Reported speech

a) ‘Leslie, will you remember to buy some bread?’ Paul reminded ......................................................

b) ‘I’m sorry I didn’t phone you earlier.’ Jill apologized ........................................................................

c) ‘Yes, all right, I’ll share the bill with you’. Brenda agreed ..............................................................

d) ‘No, I won’t work on Saturday!’ Catherine refused ........................................................................

e) ‘Let’s go out to the café for lunch, shall we?’ Wendy suggested ......................................................

f) ‘It’s not true! I have never been arrested.’ Larry denied ....................................................................

g) ‘I’ll take you to the party on Sunday, children.’ Tom promised .......................................................

h) ‘I really think you should see a doctor, Chris.’ William advised ......................................................
Cleft and pseudo-cleft sentences: emphasize the underlined part of the sentence

a) The cigarette smoke is irritating my eyes. .................................................................

b) We had to clean up all the mess. ................................................................................

c) Jimmy watches TV in his room instead of studying. ...................................................

d) Scientists now believe that human activity is the cause of this. ................................

........................................................................................................................................

e) Alex phoned, not Albert. ..............................................................................................

f) Things got worse after Elaine left. ................................................................................

g) I hate Frank. ...................................................................................................................

h) You were supposed to be here yesterday. .....................................................................

i) I need a cup of coffee. What ..........................................................................................

j) He repaired old clocks. ....................................................................................................

k) Phil wants to study law. ..................................................................................................

l) Martin ate your pizza. ......................................................................................................

Emphasize the different parts of the following sentence:

My daughter has bought a puppy for her friend Lana at the new pet shop

a) ........................................................................................................................................

b) ........................................................................................................................................

c) ........................................................................................................................................

d) ........................................................................................................................................

e) ........................................................................................................................................